

George Griswold (245 E. 63rd) gives his line of descent as follows: Matthew II, George, George, George, George, George, George; he is not interested in attending GR 73.

(127 E. 80)
Denny Griswold says he is not a descendant; not interested in attending GR 73

John A. Griswold (319 E. 21) replied to question #1 as follows: "I don't think so. I am descended from Griswolds who landed near old Lyme, Ct. in the 1600's." SRP replied to John Griswold's post card on 02-16-1979 (letter # 232 - SRP file). In that letter, SRP states: "In your response you state that you are descended from Griswolds who landed near old Lyme, Connecticut in the 1600's. It is my guess that the Griswolds from whom you are descended are the same Griswolds from whom I am descended.... The Griswolds from whom Francis Griswold is descended arrived in New England
